

Medicare and Military Insurance

NWMHC accepts Medicare and Military Insurance but currently federally supported insurances require that you see providers whose licensure type and service type is approved by the federal plan.

If seeking Mental Health Services: NWMHC has a large number of Medicare approved providers so this should not limit your access to services.

If seeking Substance Use Services: Medicare currently does not cover this service so any services received would need to be paid for via sliding fee or private pay.